Subject:- Acceptance of the endowment offered by Mr. Madure Sundaram Iyer for certain sevas to Navagrahas and Ganapathi idol installed by him within the compound of Sri Chandramouleswaraswamy temple in Bowringpet Town.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward, herewith, for reference and return, the entire file of correspondence ending with letter No. A.C.1958/41-42, dated 3rd November 1941, on the above subject.

It is reported by the Deputy Commissioner, that the donor late Mr. Sundaram Iyer, offered the marginally noted properties as an endowment for the sevas referred to above. In accordance with the registered gift deed dated 28th May 1932, executed by the donor, Mr. V. Ramaswamy Setty is entitled to make satisfactory arrangements for the performance of the puja. Mr. Venugopal Setty prays that as he has grown old, the properties including the cash balance of Rs. 284-14-3 (which is kept in the S.B. Account in the name of the Amildar) may be taken over under Government management. The Dharmadarsis and the local officers have subscribed the proposal. The properties are reported to be free from encumbrances.

Estimated cost of the properties Rs.1000/-.

The Public Prosecutor, Kolar, in his letter No.P.C.3/43-44 dated 4th July 1945, to the Deputy Commissioner, opines that there is no legal impediment in the way of accepting the offer made by Mr.Ramalingam Chetty as he is managing the properties under the gift deed where-in there is a clear recital that the properties are self-acquired. It is further reported that the donor has no legal heirs. Even, if there are any claimants, the claim is barred by adverse possession since the properties are reported to be in the management of the trustees for the last nearly 21 years.

Vide transfer deed Flag C.

In the circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained for accepting the properties referred to in the margin for endowment for utilising the income there-from for the regular conduct of sevas to the deities referred to above in accordance with the wishes of the Donor.

Mr.M.V.Ramalingam Setty is managing these properties and arranging for the conduct of pooja to these Idols. The endowed properties are reported to be free from encumbrances.

2. From the accounts maintained by the present manager, it is seen that he has a cash balance of Rs. 324-13-3 which is now kept in the . . Account in the name of the mildar.

3. Mr.Ramalingam Setty who has grown old has prayed that these properties including the cash may be taken over under Government management. The Dharmadarsies of the temple agree with him. The local officers have also supported the proposal.

5. In these circumstances, the properties as described, in the gift deed together with the buildings and trees standing thereon and the cash balance referred to above, may be accepted as an endowment for the of Navagrahas and Ganapathi Idols installed by Mr. Sunderam Iyer On receipt of orders action will be taken to lease out the properties for the best advantage of the deities and also to invest the cash balance under the charitable endowment rules.

have been installed (by him), and appointed Shri Ramalinga Shetty, a trustee of the place, as the trustee of the said properties by means of a registered deed dated the 26th May 1922, empowering him to make satisfactory arrangements for the conduct of daily services in the said Shrine. The donor passed away several years ago, and the trustee, Shri Ramalinga Shetty, who has maintained the institution till now, has urged as he has grown old, that the properties in question including a cash balance of Rs. 324-13-3 which has since been deposited in the Govt Savings Bank in the Taluk Treasury, may be taken over by Govt with the institution and managed by them,

2. The D C states that the Public Prosecutor who was consulted in the matter is of opinion that there are no legal impediments in the way of accepting the offer of the trustee, in as much as the properties which were self-acquired by the donor who has no heirs, are free from encumbrances and that even if there are any claimants, their claim will be barred by adverse possession for more than twenty years, and therefore, agreeing with the local officers and the Dharmadarshis of the temple, recommends ~~List of Enclosures~~ that management of the the shrine and its properties including the cash balance, may be assumed by Govt. The M.C. supports the above proposal of the D.C. and adds that the income from the properties will be utilised towards the performance of the services in accordance with the wishes of the late donor.
